

ԻրադրճգճնրԻ ԻճԻ 2021: The imaginal disc

Iaspis announces an open call for ԻրադրճգճնրԻ ԻճԻ 2021. The residency is organized by Tier treuhand in cooperation with Strelka Institute and Iaspis, and realized in partnership with Helsinki International Artist Programme – HIAP, Design Museum Helsinki and Helsinki Design Week.

Program

ԻրադրճգճնրԻ ԻճԻ is a postdisciplinary residency and public program for expanded spatial practice. The program is open without regard to disciplinary background to practitioners and researchers who seek to analyze, speculate on and imagine the future of the transmaterial built environment, and the logistic and political realization of change in its interfacing with our planetary habitat.

Edition theme

Under the title The imaginal disc, ԻրադրճգճնրԻ ԻճԻ 2021 invites for a particular focus on explorations into the possibilities, boundaries and different forms of knowing, unknowing and spatializing knowledge and memory in the conditions of deep change. Applicants are invited to reflect on this stimulation, however it is no requirement that project/research proposals relate in literal or direct ways to the theme. Extended detail the background of this year’s topic is found on the ԻրադրճգճնրԻ ԻճԻ website at <http://transgenic.space/2021>

Participation

ԻրադրճգճնրԻ ԻճԻ 2021 will take place in Helsinki, Finland, from August 2 to September 19, 2021, with the public program part produced during Helsinki Design Week (September 9 to 19). If pandemic conditions at the time should so demand, the program will be conducted remotely, building on the experience gathered in 2020.

One Sweden-based resident will be selected to participate in the 2021 program, where they will be joined by two more participants coming from Russia and Finland, respectively.

Eligibility

Professionals working in/between the fields of arts, design and architecture can apply. Only applicants whose main artistic practice is in Sweden or who are permanent residents of Sweden may apply for a grant.

Grant

The residency grant will include a stipend of SEK 29.000, consisting in SEK 23.000 to cover living and travel expenses and a production budget of SEK 6.000 to support project realization costs, and participation in the public program events.

During the residency, residents are expected to participate on a full-time basis, including in the program’s public phase. Residents further are expected to agree to reasonable press requests related to the program and, after the residency, provide feedback and a contribution adequate to their project/research to the residency archive. Additional detail on the participation details can be found on the program’s website at <http://transgenic.space/apply>.

Application

The application period opens on March 9 and closes on March 31, 2021 at 24.00 CET.
